Fox Lake Wisconsin

Policy Manual

Section 18. Displays and Exhibits Policy

As an educational and cultural institution, the Fox Lake Public Library welcomes exhibits and displays of interest, information and enlightenment to the community. Displays of handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material deemed of general interest may be exhibited. The director shall accept or reject material offered for display based on its suitability and availability.

The Library assumes no responsibility for the preservation or protection, and no liability for possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the Library are there at the owner's risk.

Areas available to the public for displays and exhibits are the glass exhibit case, the meeting room, and the general bulletin board. The exhibitor must sign a release before any artifact can be placed in the library. The release form can be found in Appendicies.
